The Iowa Prayer Breakfast

...A long-standing tradition where Iowa's Governor, legislators, and community and religious leaders ask God's direction and blessing upon our state

...The reading of the Scriptures, local musicians, an inspiring message from Dr. Joe Stowell, and prayer for our state

...A hearty breakfast, the company of friends, and a beginning of the Easter weekend celebration

Dr. Joe Stowell to speak at the Iowa Prayer Breakfast

An internationally recognized conference speaker, Dr. Joe Stowell has written numerous books. His life is marked by a deep love for Jesus, which is reflected in his desire to value people, aid the poor and marginalized, and to build a strong and vibrant community where the presence of Christ is evident.

Dr. Stowell has a distinguished career in higher education and church leadership. For 18 years, he served as the president of Moody Bible Institute. After MBI, Dr. Stowell served as a teaching pastor in suburban Chicago before he assumed the presidency at Cornerstone University in Michigan. President Stowell is a graduate of Cedarville University and Dallas Theological Seminary and serves on the Board of Wheaton College. He also writes devotionals for Our Daily Bread and has filmed Christian historical documentaries.
