

Thursday, April 18
7:15-8:45 AM

Veterans Memorial Community Choice
Credit Union Convention Center
883 5th Avenue, Des Moines
Adults $25 | Students $10

featuring actor, author, and speaker

T.C. Stallings

*Tickets available now through April 10
at iowaprayerbreakfast.com*

The Iowa Prayer Breakfast

- A long-standing Holy Week tradition where Iowa's Governor, legislators, and community and religious leaders ask God's direction and blessing upon our state
- The reading of the Scriptures, local musicians, and an inspiring message from T.C. Stallings
- A hearty breakfast, the company of friends, and a beginning of the Easter weekend celebration

T.C. Stallings

Starring as "Tony Jordan" in the 2015 hit movie "War Room", T.C. Stallings is an actor, speaker, and author aiming to use all of his gifts to live out his God-given purpose in life.

T.C.'s main mission is to share the message of Christ and help others recognize the calling that God has placed on their lives. He loves studying Scripture and asking God to show him an effective way to communicate its true meaning.

As a result of simply being passionate about helping people connect with Jesus and understand His calling on their lives, T.C. has been platformed by God through many ways including feature films, television commercials, sports modeling contracts, writing, and speaking opportunities in and out of the country.

Before T.C. began his acting career, he enjoyed a stellar football career in the collegiate and professional ranks. After retiring from football in 2008, he set his sights on film and television. Success as an actor began in 2011 with his role as "TJ" in the movie "Courageous". With all of his success, a consistent focal point for T.C. is to always do it without any spiritual compromise.

T.C. and his family live in Southern California. He is married to his college sweetheart Levette Stallings, and they have two beautiful children.

Thursday, April 18
7:15-8:45 AM

Veterans Memorial Community Choice
Credit Union Convention Center
883 5th Avenue, Des Moines
Adults $25 | Students $10

featuring actor, author, and speaker

T.C. Stallings

*Tickets available now through April 10
at iowaprayerbreakfast.com*

The Iowa Prayer Breakfast

- A long-standing Holy Week tradition where Iowa's Governor, legislators, and community and religious leaders ask God's direction and blessing upon our state
- The reading of the Scriptures, local musicians, and an inspiring message from T.C. Stallings
- A hearty breakfast, the company of friends, and a beginning of the Easter weekend celebration

T.C. Stallings

Starring as "Tony Jordan" in the 2015 hit movie "War Room", T.C. Stallings is an actor, speaker, and author aiming to use all of his gifts to live out his God-given purpose in life.

T.C.'s main mission is to share the message of Christ and help others recognize the calling that God has placed on their lives. He loves studying Scripture and asking God to show him an effective way to communicate its true meaning.

As a result of simply being passionate about helping people connect with Jesus and understand His calling on their lives, T.C. has been platformed by God through many ways including feature films, television commercials, sports modeling contracts, writing, and speaking opportunities in and out of the country.

Before T.C. began his acting career, he enjoyed a stellar football career in the collegiate and professional ranks. After retiring from football in 2008, he set his sights on film and television. Success as an actor began in 2011 with his role as "TJ" in the movie "Courageous". With all of his success, a consistent focal point for T.C. is to always do it without any spiritual compromise.

T.C. and his family live in Southern California. He is married to his college sweetheart Levette Stallings, and they have two beautiful children.